

RISING ANXIETY AMONG CHILDREN

VIRTUAL PRESENTATION

FREE and Open to the Public

Wednesday, November 17, 2021
at 7:00 PM

Presented by:

Jacque Cutillo, Ph.D., LLP, LPC, LMHC,
of the FEW Center

Emerging data on rising anxiety among children and adolescents during the pandemic illuminates the challenges parents, administrators, and providers face as they seek to help. Dr. Jacque Cutillo will provide an overview of the most common anxiety disorders, describe how symptoms manifest differently in children at various ages, and discuss pandemic-specific stressors that negatively impact children and adolescents. Come learn how to build bridges between parents, caregivers, teachers, administrators, and leaders to better care for children and adolescents struggling with unmanageable anxiety. When to seek professional help will also be discussed.
